Higher Opportunity for
Pathways to Employment (HOPE)

Helping Maine families pursue training and education beyond high school

Prepared by the Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Family Independence

6/29/23

What is HOPE?

The HOPE Program will help Maine families pursue training and education beyond high school and achieve their career goals.

HOPE provides financial support to eligible parents for costs related to training and education to help parents enroll in and complete their training or education program.

Did you know?

21% of Maine college students 25+ years old are taking care of dependent children.

109,000 Maine adults have begun, but not completed, a program of study beyond high school.

Maine needs 158,000 more workers credentialed and educated by 2025 to seize the excellent job opportunities available in the coming years.
